*Program Fee: Includes Tuition, Medical Insurance and Textbooks

** Homestay Fee: Covers monthly fees + 10 nights @$40/night for orientation period. Any unused amount during this period will be refunded to the student at the end of October or March, see details in Homestay Payment Service explanation below.

Students in the District Homestay will be charged for a full month of homestay fee for the month they are arriving and departing. Students returning home in January 2026 will receive a refund for unused homestay nights.

Please note that from time to time our homestay program is not able to accommodate certain medical or dietary requests. In such cases students may be able to find a suitable homestay with one of the private homestay companies that operate in our region. Please check with companies to confirm pricing, which is different from ours. Contact us for information about Private Homestay options

***Custodianship: At the discretion of Canadian Immigration Officers, the province of British Columbia requires minor children between ages of 17 and the age of majority (19) to have a notarized custodianship declaration signed by both legal parents (if applicable) and their Canadian custodian. The Abbotsford School District may act as the custodian for students in the District Homestay Program, upon request, free of charge.

Unaccompanied Minor Service - Students in our District Homestay Program who are travelling as Unaccompanied Minors will be charged an additional $260. This amount covers the additional fee that the Airport Pick Up service charges us to receive UM students, and for the extra resources and staff required to coordinate airport arrival pickup. Flight Details for Unaccompanied Minors must be communicated to our office at least 7 days prior to flying.

Deferral Fee - Students who are registered to attend may defer their studies to another semester / year for a fee of $200. Please note that should any prices change students will be charged the full fees for the semester / year that they attend.

Apostille Fee - The Governments in some countries require that report cards are validated through their Consular Services. We charge a processing fee to help recover a portion of the costs incurred by our office for courier, legal and labour fees.
